

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Huguenots was cast last evening, taken as a whole, as well as it has ever been in this country.

Hummer found in "Raoul" a part exactly suited to his voice and his style. "L'air d'adieu," the grand tenor romanza, was given with great sweetness and power.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Chanfrau produces the Streets of New York, playing "Madog" himself. Miss Loran will be the "Dee" and Mr. Farlee the "Boot-black."

NEW CHESTNUT STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Mor-dant's benefit was a flattering ovation to this young actor, whose talent has rapidly raised him to the leading position of his profession.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—This is Mr. Clark's last evening. He has played a long and most successful engagement.

BECKER ON RECONSTRUCTION.—On Thursday evening, March 23, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is announced to deliver his great lecture on "Reconstruction" at the Academy of Music.

MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

THE UNION LEAGUE.—At the recent regular meeting of the Union League in Camden, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That this League disapprove of the course of President Johnson in vetoing the Freedman's Bureau Bill.

Resolved, That we equally condemn the weak-kneed manner in which six Union Senators quailed under the fear of Executive displeasure, and failed to sustain their first expressed opinion.

Resolved, That this League condemn Hon. William A. Newell, for voting with the negative upon Mr. Stevens' resolution of Reconstruction, offered in the House of Representatives, on February 20, and that the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of these resolutions to Mr. Newell.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to Hon. John F. Starr, of the First Congressional District, for the firm stand he has taken upon the questions which have agitated Congress during the present session.

THE NEW SCHOOL-HOUSE.—The bill authorizing the Board of Education of Camden to borrow $20,000, for the purpose of erecting a new school house in Middle Ward, has passed the Legislature. So soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, therefore, the Board will commence operations.

RELIGIOUS.—There are about eight persons to be immersed in the First Baptist Church in Camden to-morrow evening; and the ordinance by immersion will also be performed in some of the other Baptist churches.

J. FITZPATRICK & CO., AUCTIONEERS.—New Auction House, No. 97 CHESTNUT STREET.

SEGARS, TOBACCO, ETC. TEN FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—1ST. DEAN always has his store full of customers.

2ND. Because he keeps the best stock of segars and tobacco in the city, and sells at least from 25 to 30 per cent. less than you can buy elsewhere.

3RD. Why is it that the city tobacconists are down on Dean? Because he sells a bet or quality of tobacco and segars at a much less price than they can sell.

4TH. The reason why he can sell so cheap is because his retail sales are over $200 per day, and his wholesale trade is over $2000 per day. He can afford to sell at from 2 to 5 per cent. profit while others cannot live on less than from 20 to 40 per cent.

5TH. Dean sells the best Havana segars for six cents each. Genuine Yara for ten cents, and makes a liberal discount to those buying by the box.

6TH. Dean's Yara Segars are the only genuine Yara in this city, all others are of inferior quality. Dean secured the whole crop of Yara this year and for next year. If you want genuine Yara Segars, go to Dean's, No. 413 Chestnut street.

7TH. Dean sells all kinds of smoking tobacco from 30 cents per pound to $1.50 per pound, and a discount on 5 pounds or upwards. Try for will like it.

8TH. Dean's Store is No. 413 Chestnut street. If you inquire of some tobacconist they will tell you they don't know him, and don't acknowledge him to be in the business. Why don't they know him? Because he sells so cheap, he is killing the business.

9TH. Some tobacconists makes them mean, but Dean can afford to be liberal; he trades his always on the increase. That's what troubles the Spanish Jews and red noses. When you want prime tobacco or segars at a fair price, go to Dean's, No. 413 Chestnut street.

10TH. Dean's Yara Segars are the only genuine Yara in this city, all others are of inferior quality. Dean secured the whole crop of Yara this year and for next year. If you want genuine Yara Segars, go to Dean's, No. 413 Chestnut street.
